Industry-Leading Customer Experience

At PIP®, our relentless focus on customer satisfaction is at the center of everything we do.

We are constantly working to ensure we're not just meeting but exceeding our customers' expectations.

Our salesforce of more than two hundred seasoned salespeople serves our distributor partners across vertical markets by collaboratively identifying and providing safety solutions that are tailored to their customers' needs. By working closely with distributor partners, we obtain a better understanding of their challenges and gain insights on how we overcome their challenges together. Each account is serviced by a team of dedicated customer service representatives who are committed to providing a comprehensive customer experience.

By jointly serving the market and leveraging PIP's best-in-class field support, training and market expertise, we keep end-users safe and protected.

Our Value Proposition

Expertise, Quality and Service

Expertise

The Safety market is constantly evolving. As a company with more than thirty-five years of experience in this market, it's our duty to utilize our expertise to help educate others and identify the optimal resolution for customers. Whether it's offering product-specific training, providing updates on the newest safety technologies and industry standards, or going the extra mile to ensure the right solution is found, PIP® is the go-to source for all your Safety needs.

Quality

Quality is woven into every element of the PIP® experience. Each day, we develop and provide our customers with innovative PPE that keeps workers safer, more comfortable and more productive. Our comprehensive product offering, world-class sales tools and efficient processes deliver an unparalleled customer experience.

Service

We are dedicated to serving our distributor partners better than anyone else in the market. Crucial to this charge is understanding and anticipating the needs of our customers while continuing to exceed expectations. This notion is incorporated into everything we do – from our field support and customer service to our operational processes – we are committed to delivering a level of service that is second to none.
